Mr. Cady served as mayor of Circleville in the period from 1934-1939.

Prospects Dim For New Farm Pay Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farm leaders agreed today prospects for a production payment method of bolstering agricultural income suffered a setback from an Agriculture Department report saying such a plan would cost as much as $10 billion a year.

The report, issued Friday, said the cost would be $7 billion if production was limited to the 1956 level of farm output and $10 billion if production was unlimited.

A number of farm leaders in and out of Congress favor use of payments in farm programs, but they generally agreed that the mood in Congress is not favorable for legislation to authorize their broad use. The Eisenhower administration opposes such payments except in the case of wool, a commodity on which they are now used.

Farm leaders said there is a strong demand in Congress for a reduction in government spending, rather than an increase.

The department report on payments did not make any recommendations. But it said that in addition to the cost, the payment method would raise serious problems of overproduction of some products, particularly in the livestock field. The department estimate cost of payments was larger than some of the advocates have estimated.

U.S. Skilled Craftsman Total Said Declining

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—Secretary of Labor Mitchell says the country's need for skilled craftsmen will be "increasingly critical" in the next 10 years unless there is an increase in the number of young skilled workers.

Speaking at a Lehigh University convocation Sunday the secretary said the number of skilled craftsmen in the U.S. in 1956 was 8 1/2 million—the same number as in 1951. In the last five years "there was an actual decrease of 220,000 young skilled workers between the ages of 14 and 24," Mitchell declared.

U.S., Russia Plan To Swap Data on Earth Satellites

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Russian and American scientists have arranged to exchange information resulting from moonwatch observations of earth satellites.

Leon Campbell, director of the U. S. moonwatch program, just back from a conference at Barcelona with his Russian counterpart, told newsmen: "We made arrangements for swapping moon watch operations between the Smithsonian and the Russian Academy of Science. Details are to be worked out."

Campbell identified the Russian coordinator for visual observation of satellites as Mrs. A. G. Mashevitch, described as one of Russia's outstanding astronomers.

Campbell said Mrs. Mashevitch told him there are 66 or 68 moon watch teams organized in Russia on a voluntary basis, as are the West's. They have 25 to 30 members on a team.

He said he went to Barcelona for a meeting of the eighth Congress of the International Astronomical Federation. Meanwhile, a top American satellite specialist predicted that the U. S. baby moon will stay aloft "for a couple of years" if it is fired into its planned orbit.

At the same time, Dr. Fred L. Whipple estimated in Cambridge, Mass., Sunday night that it would be months before the Russian Satellite drops back to earth.

Whipple is director of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory at Cambridge, where information from American observations of the Russian sphere is being assembled and analyzed.

Moonwatchers at the Smithsonian Observatory got another good look today at the third-stage rocket which boosted the Soviet moonlet into its orbit and took up an earth-girdling career of its own. The object was in sight for

Grandma, 99, Hardest of All Grandmas

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Grandmothers Club of America, 1,500 strong, is holding its annual convention here and the hardest grandmother of them all is 99-year-old Madame Marie Renier of Kankakee, Ill.

Mme. Renier speaks only French. She says she sits up past midnight to play euchre and rummy with family and friends, wouldn't think of eating a meal without wine, drinks an ounce and one half of whisky before retiring and sleeps like her 15 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren and nine great great grandchildren.

Three of her daughters are with her for the convention. They, too, are grandmothers. They didn't bring Mme. Renier. She persuaded them to come, she explained in her best French, and they agreed. They are Mrs. Alice Jeffrey, 75, and Mrs. Zoe Sharkey, 69, of Kankakee, and Mrs. Flora Van Sleet, 72, South Bend, Ind. Mme. Renier tries not to miss a minute of living. She still likes her coffee hot and strong and she always is the center of attraction when the 450 descendants of the Renier and Le Coq (her maiden name) clans gather each July 14 for their annual celebration.

about a minute, speeding from north to south.

LEONARD GIBLIN, Associated Press newsmen who was among the watchers, said the high flying rocket was brighter than any of the stars visible at dawn.

Scientists said they did not get a look at the satellite itself, believed to be following a few minutes behind the rocket.

Dr. John P. Hagen, director of the U.S. satellite program, said Saturday night that scientists at the U.S. Naval Research Laboratory here expect the Russian moonlet to stay in outer space "for at least a year."

Whipple said officials at the Smithsonian Observatory believe the Soviet satellite, which has been whirling around the globe since it was launched Oct. 4, will serve as an extremely valuable "dry run" for operations when the U.S. satellite is launched.

The United States, according to present plans, will fire some small test spheres in December, with the launching of full instrumented satellites due in March.

While American experts have been using both radio and visual aids in tracking the satellite itself, they must rely on their eyes, telescopes and cameras to gather information about the rocket which has no transmitter.

Some U.S. scientists say the Russian Sputnik is automatically sending information back to the Soviets via coded signals.

A spokesman for the U.S. satellite project said Saturday "we still have not been able to evaluate information being sent."

Pittsburgh Plagued By Transit Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A transit strike plagued Pittsburgh today, stalling all city trolley and bus lines and forcing hundreds of thousands of people to find other ways to get to their jobs.

The result was a monumental flood of auto traffic that swelled to a near stalemate even before the normal rush hour. Trolley and bus lines normally carry some 350,000 riders daily.

The strike started about 4 a. m. as members of Division 85 Amalgamated Assn. of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees refused to man trolleys and buses after 12 hours of deadline negotiations failed to bring agreement on a new contract.

Mme. Renier speaks only French. She says she sits up past midnight to play euchre and rummy with family and friends, wouldn't think of eating a meal without wine, drinks an ounce and one half of whisky before retiring and sleeps like her 15 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren and nine great great grandchildren.

Police See Tie Between Kent, Akron Slayings

Newlyweds' Bodies Found; Hungarian DP Sought for Probe

RAVENNA (AP)—Crime detection experts were at work today to try to learn whether the fatal shooting of a newlywed Akron couple in a woods near here and the killing of an elderly bookseller at nearby Kent were done by the same murderer.

John H. DuBois, 67, the bookseller, was shot in the stomach in his store near Kent State University on the night of Oct. 2. The door of his safe was open and about $100 in crumpled bills was strewn on the floor.

Also on Oct. 2, Steve Mikulak, 35, a power company lineman, and his bride of four days, Lillie, 43, left their home in Akron to go to work and disappeared.

Their bodies were found by two Cleveland hunters Saturday afternoon in a 40-foot ravine five miles southeast of here. Police think they, too, were killed on Oct. 2. Detectives theorize the killer made the Mikulaks squat down, with hands in coat pockets, at the edge of the ravine and then shot them from behind in "Gestapo" execution style.

IN THE KENT killing, .32 caliber, copper-coated automatic pistol bullets were used, and the same kind of slugs killed the Mikulaks, police said. A hunting knife and a box of shells were found at the murder scene in the woods. A red checked hunting cap with a white man's hair in it, was on the floor of the book shop. Ballistics tests are being made of the slugs from the bodies, and a partial fingerprint was being (Continued on Page Two)

Toledoan Is Killed In 17-Vehicle Crash

TOLEDO (AP)—Seventeen vehicles piled up on the fog-shrouded Toledo Expressway today in a series of chain-reaction crashes in which one man was burned to death and four other persons suffered injuries.

The dead man was George French of Toledo.

The collisions began when an automobile rammed into the rear of a pickup truck on the expressway. The driver of another truck saw the accident and stopped.

That truck was rammed in the rear by French's car which burst into flames. Then along came another truck and rammed the French car, crushing it. Subsequent pileups ran the total of vehicles involved to 17.

Testimony and statements from 27 sailors and 4 marines—including one of the men charged who also served time as a prisoner—led to charges being signed Sept. 12 by Maj. Haskell C. Baker of Atlanta, Ga., Marine commander at the south Japan base.

Baker gave his opinion in a written report "that all the incidents reported as findings did, in fact, occur."

The Marines charged include Pvt. William T. Youngerman, 20, Dayton, Ohio.

Nasser Aid to Arab Groups Seen Drive Against Ike Plan

CAIRO (AP)—President Nasser is sending Egyptian arms around the Arab compass in an apparent counteroffensive against the Eisenhower Doctrine.

There were reports of a dual shift in the Middle East: a swing toward stricter neutrality in Cairo and Damascus and a weakening of support in pro-Western Lebanon for the anti-Communist U.S. doctrine.

Nasser pushed Egyptian influence with these moves: 1. The surprise landing of an undisclosed number of Egyptian troops at the Syrian port of Latakia Sunday was followed by a formal display of Egyptian naval force there.

2. Egypt announced it was sending to Libya a symbolic gift of six armored cars and 100-200 rifles. September and sent Vampire jet planes to the Saudi Arabian air force in August. Both Libya and Tunisia endorsed the Eisenhower policy and Saudi Arabian King Saud tacitly approved it.

3. Egypt moved to weld stronger military ties under the joint command which includes Egyptian, Syrian and Saudi Arabian forces.

With the arrival of Egyptian troops in Syria, preceded by Egyptian technicians, the two governments declared their determination to stand together against any aggression from Turkey.

The campaign to rebuild Egyptian influence was accompanied by further maneuvering to heal the rifts in the Arab world.

Lebanon, previously under bitter attack from Egypt and Syria over its endorsement of the Eisenhower Doctrine, was reported asking the United States to let it renege on that endorsement.

Lebanon might have little to lose, since she has received almost all her share of the $200 million Congress appropriated for the American campaign against Communist aggression in the Middle East.

King Saud, who is visiting in Lebanon, was said to be urging a Lebanese reversal as a contribution to Arab unity.

A trend toward greater neutrality by Egypt and Syria seemed to be evidenced by these reports:

Beirut sources said Syria's President Shukri Kuwattiy and Akram Hourani, leader of the dominant Baath Arab Socialist Resurrection party may be teaming up to try to curb pro-Soviet leaders in the government.

The reported talks were Maj. Gen. Afif Bizry, army chief of staff; Defense Minister Khalid el Azem, and Public Works Minister Fakar Fayal. All three are pro-Soviet and anti-West.

The arrival of Egyptian forces in Syria seemed to be more of a diplomatic move to draw the two countries closer together than a military move actually designed to defend Syria.

The armed forces of Syria are estimated at 50,000 men and of Egypt at 100,000 men. The combined armies would be no match for Turkey's well-trained Army of about 500,000.

Ohio Widow Back after Haiti Tragedy

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Shibly J. Talamas, whose husband, a United States citizen, died Sept. 29 while in the custody of Haitian police, arrived at Idlewild Airport Sunday night en route to her mother's home in Ashabula, Ohio.

Mrs. Talamas, who arrived with a brother-in-law, William Talamas said that her infant daughter, Ann Frances, born the day her husband died, had returned to Ashabula earlier Sunday. She said her mother, Mrs. Lillie Wilpula, and the infant left Miami earlier and flew to the Ohio City.

Mrs. Talamas said she would remain in New York for a day or two and go on to her mother's home. Mrs. Talamas said the United States embassy in Haiti "had done very well" in dealing with her husband's death. "The rest depends on Washington. But so far nothing seems to have been done. We expect Washington to do what is necessary to obtain justice."

She said her husband, who was born in Haiti and later became an American citizen, was given into the custody of Haitian police by the U.S. embassy at 3 p. m. on the day he died. She said she learned of his death the following day, adding that two American doctors in Haiti performed an autopsy afterward and told her that her husband had been tortured and beaten to death.

At the time of Talamas' death, in Port Au Prince, Haitian officials said he died of a heart attack. U.S. Ambassador Gerald Drew refused to accept this account and delivered a protest.

But he said this was bypassed under "the rule of reason," and contended "there is nothing wrong about it."

In New York last week, Beck conceded that the convention had disregarded one constitutional requirement. He mentioned a rule which says all delegate credentials must be in the union's headquarters office 30 days before a convention opens.

Union Election Irregularities Back of Action

10-Day Restraining Order Tells Leader To 'Show Cause'

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal district judge today barred James R. Hoffa from taking office Tuesday as president of the big Teamsters Union.

A temporary restraining order was signed by Judge F. Dickinson Lettis at the request of a 13-man New York rank-and-file Teamsters group.

The order not only bars Hoffa from taking office, but also bars others elected with him from being sworn into office.

The temporary restraining order will remain in force for 10 days, but may be continued for another 10 days.

Judge Lettis' order also calls upon Hoffa and others elected with him to show cause why the entire proceedings of the Teamsters convention at Miami Beach, Fla., recently should not be voided as unconstitutional and why Hoffa and other officers should not be permanently barred from taking office.

THE NEW YORK group charged that Hoffa's overwhelming election as president of the Teamsters was rigged, with delegates improperly chosen under the union's constitution.

Hoffa, target of labor scandals disclosures, was elected overwhelmingly to the convention to succeed Teamsters President Dave Beck, but the rank and file group is protesting that the entire convention was illegal on grounds that more than 80 per cent of its delegates were seated in violation of the union's constitution to rig Hoffa's election.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) of the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee has said methods of selecting some of the convention delegates were so scandalous.

Attorneys for the rank-and-file group also said they would go into the U.S. Court of Appeals here seeking a court contempt finding against the Teamsters.

This action was to be based on a section of the Sept. 28 order by which the appeals court set aside an earlier injunction by Judge Lettis. That injunction would have barred election of officers at the union's convention.

The appeals court's order directed "that all delegates recognized or seated by the credentials committee shall be selected in accordance with the requirements of the constitution of the union, and that a quorum of the convention shall consist only of delegates so seated."

McCLELLAN claims that half the convention delegates were improperly selected.

In New York last week, Beck conceded that the convention had disregarded one constitutional requirement. He mentioned a rule which says all delegate credentials must be in the union's headquarters office 30 days before a convention opens.

Ohioana Career Medal Goes to Harvard Aide

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Martha Kinney Cooper Ohioana Library Assn. announced today that Dr. Paul Herman Buck, librarian of Harvard College and director of Harvard University Library, has been named winner of the 1957 Ohioana Career Medal.

Dr. Buck was born in Columbus in 1899. Widely known for his career as a scholar and administrator, his 1937 book on reconstruction in the South, "The Road to Reunion," won a Pulitzer Prize in 1938.

4-Year Sentence In Federal Pen Handed Athens Man

COLUMBUS (AP)—Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood today sentenced Lewis McDaniel, 35, of Athens to serve four years in a federal penitentiary for stealing cars.

McDaniel, who told the judge he served 27 months in Oregon for stealing a car, pleaded guilty to two auto theft charges. He admitted driving a stolen car from Oregon to Washington June 18 and another one from Washington to Montana July 2. He was caught in Ohio.

"You don't seem to have a sense of responsibility," the judge commented before sentencing McDaniel to four years in the penitentiary on each count. The sentences will be concurrent.

The judge also said that John S. Wiley, 52, of Lancaster, will be tried Nov. 4 on two counts of failure to file tax returns.

Refrigerated Heart Study Showing Gains

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—"Refrigerated" hearts look like a good possibility in the attack on heart disease, two Mississippi surgeons said today.

They said they had developed a method for preserving cut-out dog hearts by refrigeration for appreciable periods and then, by transplanting them into other dogs, had been able to keep the latter alive for spans up to 22 hours.

Dr. Watts R. Webb and Hector S. Howard, of the University of Mississippi, told about the development in a report prepared for the opening of the 43rd clinical congress of the American College of Surgeons.

"These experiments indicate," they said, "that the problems of technique and of physiology of cardiac (heart) transplants can be solved. As soon as the associated immunological problems are solved, cardiac transplants should become a reality."

By "immunological" problems they meant the natural resistance of the tissue of one individual to the implantations of tissue from another person.

The researchers did not say what would be the source of human hearts employed in any such future technique. Presumably one source would be people who might bequeath their hearts to science; or victims of fatal mauling accidents where, with the permission of relatives, hearts might be given for preservation and use in needy heart disease cases.

Plans to make the drops Saturday were postponed because the temperature — 65 below zero — was too cold for work parties to go out for the supplies.

Pretrial investigation testimony by Seaman Carl E. Scott, 19, Crosby, Tex., said two prisoners held him down while two Marines "would take a bayonet and draw the cutting edge across my chest. There was no cover on the bayonet at the time. I had scars or marks on my chest afterward but no blood was drawn."

Fireman Gordon L. Dell, 19, Flint, Mich., said "several times they made me get down on my hands and knees, running around and barking like a dog. They asked me to bite a sergeant. I went over. I didn't bite him but he kicked me."

The charges are now under review at naval headquarters in Yokosuka. No trial date has yet been set.

"It is impossible to determine at this stage what sentences might be handed down," said a Sasebo legal officer. The charges are under articles 92 and 93 and for two men only article 128 of the uniform code of military justice. These articles cover violations of orders, maltreatment and assault.

New Community Council To Hold "Open Meeting"

Theme Is "Past Present, Future"

A cordial invitation is extended to all local garden club members and everyone interested in flower arranging by the newly formed Community Council. This Community Council is composed of eight garden clubs in district 9, of the Ohio Association of Garden Clubs in the Grove City area. They are: Prairie Gardeners of New Rome; Derby; Darby Valley of Harrisburg; Commercial Point Garden Club; and Terra Garden Club, Floribunda, Town and Country and the Grove City Garden Club, the last four of which are Grove City Clubs.

This special "Open Meeting" will be held at the Harrisburg Grade School, off Route 3, Harrisburg, on Wednesday, starting at 8 p. m.

Honored guest and speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Inez Turner Burkett, world-traveler, lecturer, judge, flower-grower and arranger, who was formerly associated with the Cleveland Garden Centre. Then for the evening's program will be "A Past Era, Today, and Tomorrow".

Opening the program will be Helen Holland Maedje, in costume, who will do a monologue. Her table arrangements, costume, and mannerisms will bespeak the 1860 period. Also present will be Mrs. Alvin Tyler, who will represent her grandmother's era. Mrs. Burkett will be a present day presentation, with a glance into the future. A note to the various friends and followers of Mrs. Burkett—she now arranges with plant material of high interest rather than flowers for beauty.

There will also be a Flower Show in conjunction with this "Open Meeting"—two representatives from each of these eight clubs have been invited to bring arrangements—flower show chairman will be Mrs. Marshall Boos, of the Town and Country Garden Club. Flower arrangers will be: Mrs. Harold Norris and Mrs. Arthur Cocoran of the Terra Garden Club; Mrs. Paul White and Mrs. F. J. Ruble of the Grove City Garden Club; Mrs. Max Shapiro and Mrs. Roy Grossman of the Town and Country Garden Club; Mrs. Ralph Worthington and Mrs. Vance Hendricks of the Darby Valley Garden Club of Harrisburg.

Mrs. Robert Wills and Mrs. William Courtney will be in charge of the Thank Offering program when the "Women of the Church" of Trinity Lutheran hold a meeting at the Parish House at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. Election of officers will be held and circles will be assigned at this time.

Scioto Chapel Ladies Aid Meets In Parish House

The Scioto Chapel Ladies Aid Society met recently in the parish house for its October meeting with thirty-six members and guests present. Mrs. Elza Brooks, President, opened the meeting with the group singing "In The Service Of The King," followed by scripture reading and a reading entitled "Prayer For This Day". The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison.

It was decided by vote that nothing is to be taken from the parish house except by members of the Society.

The society will serve lunch at the Paul Beougher farm sale to be held later this month.

Birthday dues were paid by Mrs. L. L. Melvin and Mrs. Carl Groff. The program for the afternoon opened with the group singing "America, The Beautiful." Mrs. Howard Younklin presented a reading entitled "The Convalescent Woman." Mrs. Ben Walker presented two readings entitled "Panorama" and "God Created Beauty." Contests were won by Mrs. Stanley McRoberts, Mrs. Groff, Mrs. Raymond Hott and Mrs. Edith Koch.

Refreshments were served at tables decorated in keeping with the Halloween theme by Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Melvin, Mrs. N. I. Mowery and Mrs. Howard Koch. The next meeting of the society will be held in the parish house on Thursday, Nov. 14, with Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Younklin, Mrs. Otto Bethards and Mrs. Ralph Phillips as hostesses. The annual Thanksgiving Offering will be taken at that time.

Mrs. Newlon Has Union Guild Wed. Afternoon

Mrs. Roy Newlon, Jackson Twp. entertained the Union Guild at her home this week when the group met Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. George Fischer was assisting hostess.

Fourteen members and two guests, Mrs. John Anderson and Janelle Thompson were present when the meeting opened with the singing of "Bringing in the Sheaves".

Miss Addie Hill was in charge of devotions, "Facing Our Tomorrow" based on Scripture from St. Matthew.

The bazaar for next meeting was announced. The business session closed with the group singing "Rock of Ages". Mrs. Lawrence Goodman received a gift from her mystery sister. Mrs. Fischer conducted contests during the social hour.

Mrs. Lawrence Krimmell will be hostess to the group in November with Miss Addie Hill assisting.

All exhibits must be staged by 4 p. m. Wednesday. They may be removed only after 4 p. m. Saturday.

According to Cook, waxing will be allowed in all classes, but paint and varnish may be used in only seven classes—namely in classes, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9.

All gourds entered for prizes must be grown by exhibitor.

There will be special classes for children who wish to enter. Any child desiring further information may call Cook at 913-R. Children planning on bringing gourds may feel assured that classes for their exhibits will be set up.

Awards at the gourd show are tempting. A first prize of $4 will be awarded the exhibitor of Class 1 which calls for the most artistic exhibit of Current Season gourds arranged on a table 3x5 ft. with background permissible. Other awards in Class 1 are $3, $2 and $1.

In classes 2 to 9 inclusive awards are: 1st, $1.50; 2nd, $1.25; 3d, $1 and 4th, 50 cents.

In classes 10 to 20 inclusive awards are: $1.50; 2nd $1; 3rd, 50 cents and 4th 50 cents.

The schedule of classes is as follows:

Class 1—Most Artistic Exhibit of Current Season Gourds arranged on a 3x5 foot table, background permissible.

DUV Presidents Club Meets With Mrs. Webbe

Mrs. Frank Webbe entertained the Past President's Club of the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War at her home on East Mound St. Friday evening.

Mrs. C. O. Kerns, vice president, conducted the business session. She opened the meeting by asking for the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag by the membership.

Mrs. W. E. Pickens was in charge of the program. She paid tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic and other veterans by reading an article, "Memory Trail" by Mrs. Doris Merryman, national past president of DUV.

Mrs. Pickens reviewed some of the major Civil War battles including Bull Run, Antietam, Gettysburg and Atlanta.

Excerpts were read from writers who paid tribute to the valiant soldiers of the Civil War including writings by Longfellow, P. C. Hays, Edgar Guest, Washington Gladden, Oliver Wendell Holmes and James A. Garfield.

Mrs. Pickens closed the program by reading "The Army of Ohio" by P. C. Hays.

Mrs. Earl Smith provided the humorous material for the campfire session.

Mrs. Kerns served as auctioneer for the sale which followed, the money from which is turned over to the treasurer.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

The hostess's home was decorated with bouquets of garden flowers and African Violets in which Mrs. Webbe specializes.

Mrs. Webbe was assisted by Mrs. Irene Jenkins who will be hostess to the group Nov. 8 at the home of Mrs. Kerns, 230 E. Main St.

Refreshments were served at card tables in the living room.

Ashville Garden Club Members Model Corsages

Mrs. I. W. Millar and Mrs. Robert Knode were co-hostesses to the Ashville Garden Club Thursday evening at their home on South High street.

Eighteen members were present, each wearing a corsage made from her own garden flowers.

The new president, Miss Florence Brown, presided during the business meeting at which the club voted to donate $5 to the United Community Fund.

It was decided to have the workshop this year, to make and sell Christmas decorations and arrangements.

An exchange of winter house plants was made by the members.

The November meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Floyd Hook in Ashville.

Johnny Unitas Proves Star For Colts '11'

Semi-Pro Player in '55' Passes Baltimore to 3-0 Mark for 1957

By The Associated Press
Johnny Unitas was quarterbacking a semi-pro football team two years ago. He was a washout with the Pittsburgh Steelers who had drafted him from the University of Louisville.

But the 6-foot, 1-inch passer today was magician-in-chief of the Baltimore Colts, leaders of the National Football League's Western Conference with a 3-0 record.

Unitas, 24, threw two touchdown passes Sunday in Milwaukee, where the Colts burst out for 38 points in the second half to crush Green Bay 45-17.

Weeb Ewbank, Colt coach, picked Unitas off the sandlots last year as insurance when quarterback Gary Kerkorian quit the Colts to study law. Unitas took over when regular George Shaw was hurt and stayed the rest of the season to hurl nine touchdowns and complete 110 of 198 passes to rank sixth among the league's passers.

Sunday's scoring tosses increased to eight his touchdowns in three games. His pace could bring him close to former Chicago Bear Sid Luckman's 1943 record of 28 touchdowns throws in one season.

In other league games, the Cleveland Browns won their third against the last-place Philadelphia Eagles 24-7 to stay the undefeated Eastern Conference leaders.

Detroit tripped Los Angeles 10-7 and San Francisco upset the winless Bears 21-17 with a touchdown in the final 27 seconds. They kept close to Baltimore with 2-1 records.

Defending champion New York Giants outdistanced Washington 24-20 and coach Buddy Parker's reconstructed Steelers overcame the Chicago Cardinals 29-20. Each remained a game behind the Browns with 2-1 marks.

The Colts trailed 10-7 at the half. But Alan Ameche bulled one yard three times for touchdowns and Jim Mutscheller caught scoring passes from Unitas and Shaw to smash open the game.

Cleveland's quarterback Tom O'Connell threw to fullback Jim Brown to cap a 69-yard opening drive in the victory over the Eagles. Chet Hanulak raced 64 yards in the first period for the second touchdown. Billy Reynolds ran five yards for the third Brown touchdown after Lou Groza kicked a 22-yard field goal, his sixth of the season.

Charley Conerly completed 11 of 13 passes and played the entire game on offense for the Giants at Washington. He filled in for the injured Don Heinrich.

Frank Gifford threw to Bob Schnelker to complete a 66-yard scoring play the first time the Giants moved the ball. Conerly also threw a scoring pass to Schnelker and Gifford plunged for the third touchdown. Ben Agajanian kicked a 50-yard field goal in the fourth period to wind up the Giant scoring.

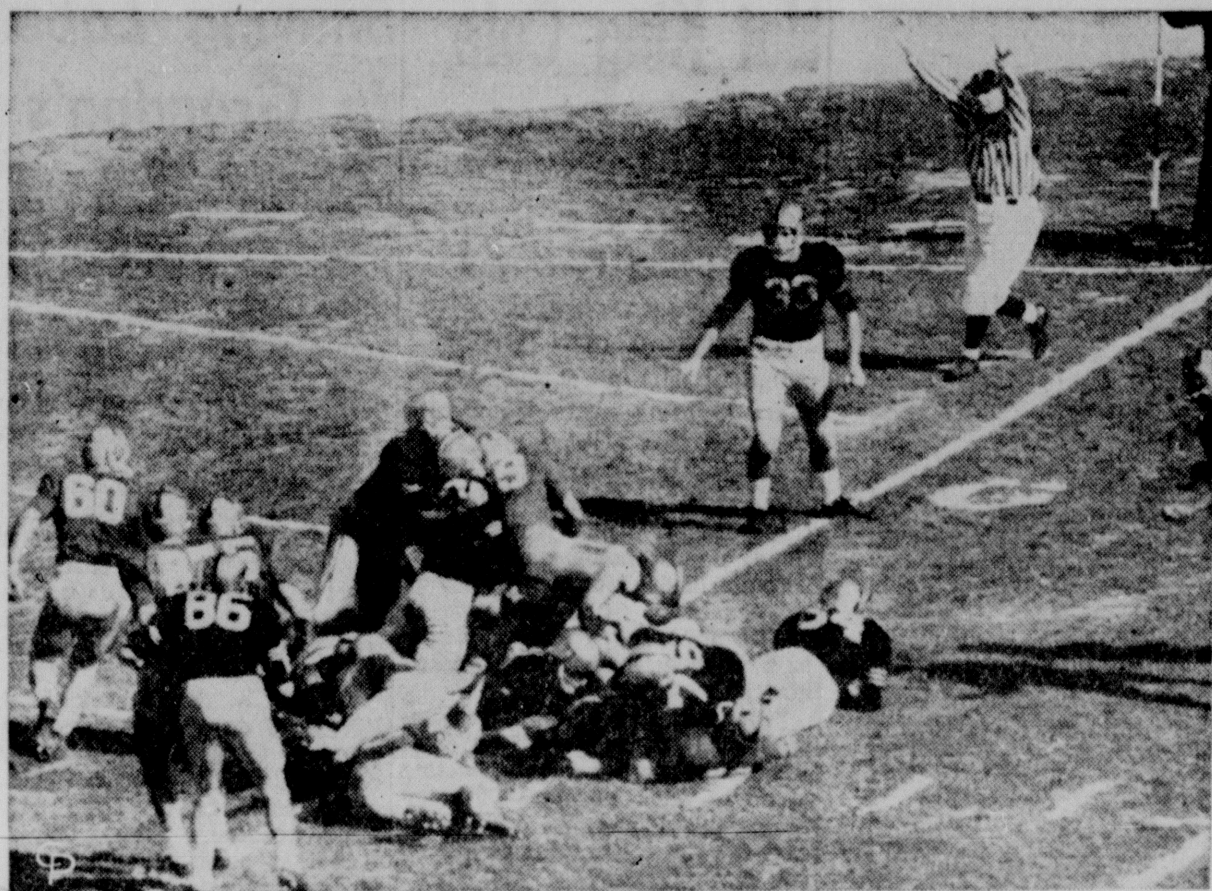

Quarterback Y. A. Tittle, always key man in the 49er attack, connected with rookie R. C. "Overdrive" Owens for the touchdown which cost the Bears their third defeat. The Bears won the Western title last year.

Owens was on his knees in the end zone when he caught the pass, the second scoring throw he had caught off Tittle. The Bears led 17-14 on George Blanda's field goal in the fourth quarter after trailing 14-17 at halftime.

The Lions stopped Los Angeles at Detroit by intercepting six Ram passes and scoring 10 points.

Detroit's secondary has intercepted 14 passes in three games. Yale Lary burgled two, the first of which led to the Lion touchdown when he ran 63 yards to the Ram 16.

Billy Wells raced 96 yards to score in the opening period for the Steelers at Pittsburgh. The Steelers, smothering Ollie Matson's running game, led 26-6 at halftime. Matson ran nine times, gained 12 yards.

IRISH UPSET ARMY — Nick Pietrosante (center), Notre Dame fullback, climbs over a tangled pile of Army and Notre Dame players to score a first quarter touchdown at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium before a crowd of 95,000. Notre Dame in renewing the ancient rivalry between the two schools, took up where they left off ten years ago by coming from behind in the final quarter to defeat a favored Army team, 23-10-21.

Rose Bowl Contestant Seen Picked in Game Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The first bowl team of the year probably will be decided when Oregon and Washington State meet at Pullman, Wash., Saturday. It's early in the season to be talking about bowls, but the unique situation in the Pacific Coast Conference has left only four teams eligible for the Rose Bowl.

Defending champion Oregon State isn't eligible because of a rule prohibiting a team from playing in the Rose Bowl two years running. UCLA, Southern California and Washington all are barred because of assorted subsidization sins.

That leaves Washington State, Oregon, California and Stanford fighting for the plum. If Washington State gets by Oregon, the Cougars are just about in because they have already beaten both California and Stanford.

Washington State hasn't appeared in the Rose Bowl since 1931 when it lost to Alabama. Back in 1906, the Cougars won their only Rose Bowl game, a 14-0 triumph over Brown.

The celebration in Pullman last Saturday after the home folks heard of the Cougars 21-18 victory over Stanford at Palo Alto, almost matched that big blowout.

Meanwhile, it begins to appear that Oklahoma is not quite up to some of the Bud Wilkinson teams of the past. The Sooners whipped Texas, 21-7, Saturday, but they had to work to do it. More significant, they are resorting more and more to passes instead of holding onto the ball and grinding out yardage on the ground.

The significance of all this is that Michigan State, which has fashioned a real powerhouse, stands a good chance of winning the mythical national championship when all the returns are in. The Spartans smothered Michigan 35-6 Saturday.

Notre Dame showed it has come a long way since last year's dismal 2-8 record by overcoming Army, 23-21.

Oklahoma, No. 1 in the current Associated Press poll, goes after its 44th consecutive victory Saturday when it entertains Kansas in a Big Eight game. Michigan State, No. 2 in the rankings, plays Purdue. Notre Dame, still undefeated, has a day off.

Here is a rundown on how things are shaping up around the country:

Far West — Oregon State, the defending champion, still seems to be the class of the Pacific Coast Conference with a 4-0 record. Oregon tuned up for its important clash with Washington State by pasting San Jose State, 26-0.

East — Army and Navy, which licked California, 21-6, still are in the running for the unofficial title. Pitt, which turned back Nebraska, 34-0, and meets Army Saturday, also is in the running. Princeton, French bantamweight contention, today started whittling away the two pounds he'll have to shed to meet Mexico's Raul (Raton) Macias here Nov. 6.

Their bout at Wrigley Field, a nationally televised 15-rounder, will settle the issue of who can claim the World Bantamweight Championship.

Halimi is recognized in Europe as the king of the 118 pounders. Macias is recognized as the champ by his native Mexico and by the American Boxing Assn.

Denison Tops Standings in College League

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio High School Track Coaches Assn. Sunday named Les Eisenhart, of nearby Worthington High School, editor of the group's newly revived newspaper, "The Ohio Trackster." The association, meeting at its annual fall convention here, also named Richard Larkin of Upper Arlington as treasurer and appointed A. W. Milner of Cincinnati to handle hiring of state track meet officials.

Close behind Denison in the over-all race are Bowling Green, last year's only undefeated Green, Capital and Otterbein.

"Bowling Green had to settle for a 14-14 tie in Saturday's Mid-American Conference opener with Western Michigan. The loss left the Bee-Gees with a 3-0-1 record. Western Michigan had lost both its earlier conference games.

Miami and Marshall, with 2-0 records, are tied for the Mid-American lead. The Redskins defeated Kent State 27-14 and Marshall downed Toledo 14-7.

Bluffton's 26-14 win over Wilmington gave the Beavers a 3-0 record and a hold on first place in the Mid-Ohio League. Wayne's domination of the new Presidents' Conference was shattered as John Carroll defeated the Michigan team 19-6.

In the Ohio Conference, Wittenberg upped its record to 2-1 with a 33-7 win over Muskingum. Ohio colleges face out-of-staters

Ohio Track Coaches Name Paper Editor

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio High School Track Coaches Assn. Sunday named Les Eisenhart, of nearby Worthington High School, editor of the group's newly revived newspaper, "The Ohio Trackster." The association, meeting at its annual fall convention here, also named Richard Larkin of Upper Arlington as treasurer and appointed A. W. Milner of Cincinnati to handle hiring of state track meet officials.

Heath Is Talked As Portland Pilot

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Tommy Heath isn't talking either way on reports he'll take over the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League now that he has quit his job as Sacramento manager.

The balding, 44-year-old Heath said Sunday he may have something to announce at midweek. Heath, who managed the Solons for two years (fifth in 1956 and seventh last season) resigned the Sacramento job last weekend.

In nine of 21 contests this week. In the big ones, Kent State plays Marshall in the Mid-American, Marquette faces Cincinnati, Xavier meets Detroit, and Dayton clashes with Louisville.

Woody Hayes Plans To Show Indiana Films

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes, who dragged out some five-year-old films to get his football charges in the right frame of mind for last Saturday's 21-7 victory over Illinois, will dig a year deeper into the film file this week.

Because Hayes considers a 32-10 pummeling at the hands of this Saturday's foe, Indiana, as one of the worst beatings Ohio State has ever taken, he will show the Buckeyes films of 1951.

Hayes last week let the team view films of a 1952 upset inflicted by Illinois and it responded with a systematic attack that was just too much for the 1957 edition of the Illini.

On the surface, it would appear that Indiana is much less of a threat to the Buckeyes than Illinois. Whereas Illinois brought a 1-1 record into Columbus, Indiana has gone winless in three starts. Moreover, the Hoosiers have scored only seven points to 127 for their opponents.

But Indiana's three outings were against opponents who have not been beaten this season — Michi-

7 Nations Enter Horse Show Tests

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A record field of seven international jumping teams will highlight activities at the 12th Pennsylvania National Horse Show Saturday.

Teams competing in the international event will be the United States, Mexico, England, Ireland, Chile and Argentina.

Mexico, the United States and England have always been keen rivals for the first three spots.

Griffith's Widow Dies at Age of 77

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Clark Griffith, 77-year-old widow of the president of the Washington Senators, died unexpectedly at her home here Sunday night.

Members of the immediate family said death apparently was caused by a heart attack.

Her husband died in Oct., 1953, at the age of 85. He had been president of the Washington Baseball Club from 1912 until his death.

'Greenest Thumb' Belongs To Botanic Gardens Aide

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP)—In one of a cluster of greenhouses at the foot of Capitol Hill, a graying little man moodily sorted small potted plants. The climate within was steamy and the hot sun bore down unbearably through the glass roof.

The plants were poinsettia cuttings—pink, white and red—he was pruning for the big Christmas time show which draws up to 12,000 visitors a day.

Edmund E. H. Sauerbrey, said to have the "greenest thumb" in the country, is assistant director of the nation's No. 1 greenhouse, the Botanic Gardens. His main job is growing all types of plants which folks come from all over the world to see.

The son of a famed florist at Thuringen, Germany, Sauerbrey came to this country in 1908 after learning his profession in night school.

In his own Baltimore greenhouse, to which he now commutes weekends, he developed a double pink lilac which bears his name.

$53,000 in Gems Taken from Hotel

NEW YORK (AP)—The widow of a Texas oil man reported Sunday the theft of jewelry valued at $53,000 from her suite in the Savoy Plaza Hotel.

Mrs. Judy Grubb of San Antonio said she kept the jewelry in a case in a locked closet in the bedroom of her two-room suite.

The stolen jewelry, police said, included a $36,000 platinum and diamond necklace, a $10,000 platinum and diamond bracelet and a $7,000 platinum and diamond wrist watch.

Truman Is Selected 'Grandpa of Year'

CHICAGO (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman has been named "Grandfather of the Year" by the National Grandmother and Grandfather of the Year, Inc.

Truman, whose daughter, Margaret, (Mrs. Clifton Daniel of New York) gave birth to a son last summer, was awarded the title at a meeting of the organization Sunday. Truman, who is 73, was not present to accept the award.

1. QUALIFICATIONS OF STATE APPOINTIVE OFFICIALS
Proposing to amend section 4 of Article XV of the constitution of the state of Ohio to permit a person to be appointed to an office of this state without possessing the qualifications of an elector.

Be it Resolved by the General Assembly of the state of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring therein, that there be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection, in the manner prescribed by law, at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1957, a proposal to amend section 4 of Article XV of the Constitution of the state of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE XV
Sec. 4. No person shall be elected to any office in this state unless he possesses the qualifications of an elector.

SCHEDULE
The proposal shall be placed on the official ballot by the secretary of state in essentially the following form:

YES	To amend section 4 of Article XV of the Ohio constitution to permit a person to be appointed to an office of this state without possessing the qualifications of an elector.
NO

If a majority of the electors voting on the foregoing proposed amendment adopt the same it shall become a part of the Constitution of the state of Ohio, and existing section 4 of Article XV of said Constitution shall thereupon be repealed.

2. QUALIFICATIONS OF PERSONS TO VOTE FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS

Proposing to amend section 1 of Article V of the constitution of the State of Ohio to provide that a person may vote for the President and Vice President of the United States without fulfilling the requirements of one year residence contained in that section.

Be it Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring therein, that there be submitted to the electors of the state, for their approval or rejection, at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1957, a proposal to amend section 1 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE V
Section 1. Every citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of the state one year next preceding the election, and of the county, township, or ward, in which he resides, shall have the qualifications of an elector, and be entitled to vote at elections.

Every citizen of the United States being twenty-one years of age who is not entitled to vote at all elections shall be entitled to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States if he shall have been a resident of the state, county, township or ward in which he desires to vote such time as may be provided by law, provided that he is not entitled to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States in any other state.

SCHEDULE
If a majority of the electors voting on the foregoing proposed amendment at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1957, adopt the same, it shall become part of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, and existing section 1 of Article V shall thereupon be repealed.

3. COUNTY CHARTER GOVERNMENT
Proposing to amend section 3 of Article X of the constitution of the state of Ohio relative to county government.

He developed 15 varieties of flowering crabapple, created a new cedar tree. A lot of the garden's "show" flowers and plants are hybrids he crossed himself, including an amaryllis with 10 petals, four more than normal.

With Alfred De Pilla, who was born across the street, came to work at the garden at age 16 and rose to manager of the conservatory where the exhibits are held, he's also readying the fall chrysanthemum show, thinking in terms of the popular azalea show in early spring and the Easter show of tulips, lilies, hyacinths and narcissi.

Each member of Congress is entitled to three plants from the garden. Sauerbrey says the popular choice is philodendron-sans-serif and dracaena. You see them in every lawmakers' office—even if you can't spell them!

The permanent exhibit consists of more than 2,000 plants, including a night-blooming cereus that sometimes produces 22 flowers; rubber trees, exotic all-spice, litchi nut, sago, tapioca, papaya, and other plants that come from far-away places and are rarely seen in the United States.

When he shows you the long-leaved "mother-in-law" plant, Sauerbrey chuckles: "You chew on it and your tongue swells up so you can't talk for 24 hours."

Whites Muster Aid For Injured Negro

PAWNEE, Okla. (AP)—Residents of this small north-central Oklahoma town today are backing a big Negro high school football player's fight to recover from a severe injury.

Abe Abbingdon, 18, suffered a ruptured intestine two weeks ago in a game with Hominy, Okla. Last week he underwent a five-hour operation. Since then, six white teammates have given blood for transfusions.

The Pawnee High School girls' pep club held a prayer meeting to pray for Abbingdon's recovery.

ARTICLE X
Section 3. The people of any county may adopt and amend a charter as provided in this article but the right of initiative and referendum is reserved to the people of each county on all matters which such county may now or hereafter be authorized to control by legislative action. Every such charter shall provide for the form of government of the county and shall determine which of its officers shall be elected and the manner of their election. It shall provide for the exercise of all powers vested in, and the performance of all duties imposed upon, counties and county officers by law. Any such charter may provide for the concurrent or exclusive exercise by the county, in all or in part of its area, of all or of any of the powers vested by the constitution or laws of Ohio in municipalities; it may provide for the organization of the county as a municipal corporation; and in any such case it may provide for the succession by the county to the rights, properties, and obligations of municipalities and townships therein incident to the exercise of power so vested in the county, and for the division of the county into districts for purposes of administration or of taxation or of both.

Any charter or amendment which alters the form and offices of county government or which provides for the exercise by the county of powers vested in municipalities by the constitution or laws of Ohio, or both, shall become effective if approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon. In case of conflict between the exercise of powers granted by such charter and the exercise of powers by the constitution or general law, whether or not such powers are being exercised at the time of the adoption of the charter, the exercise of power by the municipality or township shall prevail. A charter or amendment providing for the exclusive exercise of municipal powers by the county or providing for the succession by the county to any property or obligation of any municipality or township without the consent of the legislative authority of such municipality or township shall become effective only when it shall have been approved by a majority of those voting thereon (1) in the county, (2) in the largest municipality, (3) in the county outside of such municipality, and (4) in counties having a population, based upon the latest preceding federal decennial census, of 500,000 or less, in each of a majority of the combined total of municipalities and townships in the county (not including within any township any part of its area lying within a municipality).

SCHEDULE
At the election herein designated for the submission of this amendment to the electors of the state of Ohio, the same shall be placed on the official ballot in the manner prescribed by law and shall be designated as follows:

To amend section 3 of the Constitution of the state of Ohio to provide that the electors of a county may approve by majority vote a county charter changing the form of county government and granting it powers concurrent with those of municipalities and may approve a charter providing for exclusive exercise of municipal powers by the county with a majority of those voting in the largest municipality and in the county outside such municipality.

Ohio Tomorrow Being Studied

Chamber of Commerce Awaiting Convention

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Chamber of Commerce will look at "Ohio's Tomorrow" at its 64th annual meeting to be held here Oct. 15-16.

"Ohio's Tomorrow," the theme of the convention, will include ways to promote and protect Ohio's current and prospective business growth as the second largest manufacturing state in the nation, Harry W. Arnold, Ohio Chamber president, said Saturday. Arnold said the emphasis will be laid by business and governmental spokesmen on the need for a continuance of a healthful tax atmosphere and harmonious labor relations.

These factors, Arnold added, can help guarantee the expansion of established business and development of new industry in Ohio which currently is surpassed only by New York as an industrial state.

Subjects in the convention will include labor market prospects for Ohio, expansion of state utilities, the future of steel and basic metals in that state and the effect of research upon Ohio's future.

Sessions are also planned to discuss problems of metropolitan growth and expansion in Ohio, an appraisal of the effects of taxation and competition on state industries. Industrial authorities will measure state resources, needs and problems with respect to holding and advancing its industrial position.

A banquet to honor former Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey will conclude the convention. Sen. John W. Bricker will make the principle address honoring Humphrey who is now board chairman of the Republic Steel Corp.

Wooster To Dedicate Agronomy Building

WOOSTER (AP)—Ohio State University's Board of Trustees will meet here today at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

The station will dedicate Williams Hall, a half million dollar agronomy and forestry building, named in honor of the late C. G. Williams, former station director.

A symposium on the role of trace elements in plant and animal behavior also will be held with some top-ranking scientists taking part.

4. SALE OF SURPLUS WATER OR SEWAGE SERVICES

Proposing to amend section 8 of Article XVIII of the constitution of the state of Ohio relative to the sale of the surplus product of municipal owned water and sewage systems.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members of each house concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, in the manner prescribed by law, at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1957, a proposal to amend section 8 of Article XVIII of the Constitution of the state of Ohio as follows:

ARTICLE XVIII
Sec. 8. Any municipal corporation owning or operating a public utility for the purpose of supplying the service or product thereof to the municipality or its inhabitants may, subject to such regulations as may be provided by general law also sell and deliver to others any product or service of such utility and the surplus product of any other utility in an amount not exceeding in either case fifty per centum of the total service or product supplied by such utility within the limits of the municipality. The municipal corporation, provided that such fifty per centum limitation shall not apply to the sale of water or sewage services.

SCHEDULE
At the election herein designated for the submission of this amendment to the electors of the state of Ohio, the same shall be placed on the official ballot in the manner prescribed by law and shall be designated as follows:

YES	To amend section 8 of the Constitution of the State of Ohio to provide that the municipal corporation may sell and deliver to others any product or service of such utility and the surplus product of any other utility in an amount not exceeding in either case fifty per centum of the total service or product supplied by such utility within the limits of the municipality.

Drop in Steel Demand Seen Coming in Immediate Future

CLEVELAND (AP)—Expanding for an expected industrial boom in the 1960's, the steel industry faces a possible drop in demand in the immediate future, the magazine Steel reported today.

Foreign competition is expected to make inroads into the steel market, the magazine said. Japan is expanding its steel industry, installing equipment of the latest design.

The St. Lawrence Seaway, which will offer lower transportation rates, may spread foreign steel competition further into the U. S. Toledo, Ohio, was mentioned as a possible warehouse center distributing European products to the Midwest.

Because of increased freight rates, electric companies are expected to follow the lead of Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. in building power generating plants close to coal fields. The result will be a reduced demand for steel plates for railroad cars and an increased need for light structurals, used in electric transmission towers.

Economists are attempting to learn how far the present business contraction will go in the steel industry before the expected boom.

On the brighter side, Steel said the construction industry, aided by increased home building, will set a dollar volume record of 47.5 billion dollars this year and 49 billion in 1958.

The steel-making rate last week reflected a nationwide slowing in the production pace. Steel output dropped one per cent below the preceding week to 81 per cent of rated capacity.

The scrap market dropped again with no substantial buying by the steel mills reported. For the week of Oct. 9, the composite price of scrap declined $2.67 to $39.50 a gross ton. That's the lowest price since July, 1955.

Nat King Cole Making Movie

Composer W. C. Handy's Life Being Portrayed

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The most ambitious film about Negroes in years is being made today with Nat King Cole playing the famed composer, W. C. Handy.

The film is called "The St. Louis Blues," of course, from Handy's most famous hit. Cole talked about the project as he was being fitted for some of Sy Devore's sharp clothes, which he'll wear in the picture. I asked him if he knew Handy.

"Oh, yes, I've known Mr. Handy for 10 or 15 years," he said. "The first time I recall meeting him was when we played a benefit together. Then last fall I went east for the testimonial dinner on his 83rd birthday."

"At that time, we were discussing a proposal to film his life story. He surprised me by saying he had long been a fan of mine and would be delighted to have me play him in the movie."

How much of Handy will be in the film?

"Well, I won't try to copy his mannerisms," Cole said. "I never knew him as a young man, of course, so I don't know how he moved or acted. I've only known him since he was blind. But the elements of his life are in the script, and we're following them closely."

The singer remarked that the story will begin when Handy was a 10-year-old in Memphis and will carry him forward to the time "The St. Louis Blues" was accepted as a concert piece in Carnegie Hall.

Shaving Labeled Dangerous In Grandpa's Gaslight Era

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Men, if you think shaving is a chore today, it could have been downright dangerous a hundred years ago.

A barbershop museum recently opened in Columbus has an authentic reproduction of an up-to-date tonsorial emporium of the gaslight and barbershop quartet era.

Complete with mustache trimmers and pot-bellied stove it offers a convincing answer to the problem of why did grandfather sport a beaver in the days before the safety razor. Well, grandad was a longhair probably because it was safer.

To get a shave back in the "good old days" you surrendered yourself to a plush upholstered chair which, like a modern barber chair, could be let down into a prone position.

At that point any similarity to modern barbering practices ended. For instance, there were no barber colleges or licensed barbers and the guy stropping a fine edge on the straight razor could be palsied or a former blacksmith. Also, there were no towel or linen services so one towel had to do for any number of customers. There was no hot and cold running water either and a pan of water on the stove was used over and over again.

There was one compensation, however, for the perils of a daily shave in those days—regular customers had individual shaving mugs. At least you could be sure the lather was your own.

A barber kept these mugs on a shelf in his shop. Each was engraved with its owner's name or in some cases the symbol of his profession. A shelf of such mugs can be seen in the Columbus museum.

The museum is established at the Andrew-Columbus Barber College at 245 S. High St. It contains other interesting relics including a hand operated hair dryer and a complete line of snuff—an item sold by all barbers in that era.

There is also a clock made in 1866 which tells, not only the time but the day of the week, the date of the month, the month and the year.

Other items are a vintage 1766 razor, cuspidors for the discriminating barber who objected to customers aiming their tobacco juice at the stove and that age-old symbol of the barber—a barber pole. The barber pole is about the only thing that is still the same.

Chest Goal Is Hiked

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 10-day campaign to raise $9,608,000 for the Greater Cleveland Community Chest program got underway today. This year's goal is up 7 per cent over 1956.
